

HABS
TENN
78-GAT
1-

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

Walker Family Farm
(General views)

HABS No. TN-121

Great Smoky Mountains National Park
Gatlinburg
Sevier County
Tennessee

Jack E. Boucher, photographer 1962

- TN-121-1 ENTRANCE TO THE WALKER FARM
- TN-121-2 ENTRANCE TO THE WALKER FARM (CLOSER)
- TN-121-3 BIG HOUSE (left) AND CORN CRIB (right) IN THE BACKGROUND. See also individual HABS documentation: Walker
Family Farm, Big House (HABS No. TN-121 A), and Walker Family
Farm, Corn Crib (HABS No. TN-121 C).
- TN-121-4 THE SURVIVING WALKER SISTERS: MARGARET (age 91, standing) AND
HER SISTER LOUISA (age 79) IN FRONT OF THEIR BIG HOUSE
- TN-121-5 MARGARET WALKER (standing) AND LOUISA WALKER WITH THEIR PET DOG
- TN-121-6 SAME AS HABS No. TN-121-5
- TN-121-7 MARGARET WALKER, 91, AT THE LOOM
- TN-121-8 MARGARET (foreground) AND LOUISA WALKER, AT THE LOOM

PHOTOCOPIES

- TN-121-9 Photocopy of photograph showing myrtle-covered spring.

The original photograph was taken on May 21, 1936 by Edouard E. Exline and is one of five photographs in the album, "A Sketch of Mountain Life: Great Smoky Mountains National Park", compiled by Edouard E. Exline and C.S.
Grossman. The album is on file at the Great Smoky Mountains
National Park; the photograph number is II-B-(7)-8096.
- TN-121-10 Photocopy of photograph showing the three Walker sisters ginning cotton. Misses Hettie, Martha and Louisa are from left to right.

(continued on page 2)

WALKER FAMILY FARM (General views)
Index To Photographs
HABS No. TN-121 (page 2)

The original photograph was taken on May 21, 1936 by Edouard E. Exline and is one of five photographs in the album, "A Sketch of Mountain Life: Great Smoky Mountains National Park", compiled by Edouard E. Exline and C.S. Grossman. The album is on file at the Great Smoky Mountains National Park; the photograph number is III-A-HSE-9642.

NOTE: For more information on the Walker family and their farm, see the book (which contains some of the same photographs seen here):

Madden, Robert R. and Jones, T. Russell. Mountain Home: The Walker Family Farmstead, Great Smoky Mountains National Park. Washington, D.C.: U.S. Department of the Interior, National Park Service. (U.S. Government Printing Office).

The Library of Congress catalog number for this book is F443.G7M168.